

PUBLIC LEADER

SECOND YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1893.

ONE CENT.

AS TEXAS SEES IT.
Dallas News.—Too many American voters draw their stock of patriotism out of the bottle.

THE SENATE NOT GUILTY.
Chicago Record.—The Senate has not yet been caught red-handed in the act of earning its salary.

DIED TOO SOON.
Kansas City Star.—Poor old Dom Pedro of Brazil didn't live long enough to say: "I told you so."

IF THE WORST COMES.
Indianapolis News.—Senator Vorhees may have to send home for a sycamore club to emphasize his leadership.

CAUGHT HIS LAST BALL.
Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.—One of the lynchers killed at Roanoke was a baseball player. But then the season is over.

THE "GANG" IS THEIR TARGET.
Washington Post.—Ex-Governor Campbell appears to be firing some very effective shots from behind his "out-of-politics" ambuscade.

A STRICKEN PEOPLE.
Detroit Tribune.—The woes of the Cherokee boomers have just begun. It is stated on good authority that there are 20,000 Kansas Populists among them.

A CHANCE FOR THE BOYS.
Memphis Commercial.—The great-grandson of the author of Robinson Crusoe is a pauper in London. The boys of the world should contribute a relief fund.

OUR IMPORTED ENGLISHMAN AMBASSADOR.
New York World (Dem.).—Mr. Van Alen's opinion is that he bought his opportunity, and that, like William Waldorf Astor, he has the money to improve it.

THE PEOPLE—THEY PAY THE FREIGHT.
Philadelphia Times.—Emperor William and other royalties are having quite a time charging and countercharging in Hungary. But no matter who does the charging the people have to pay the bill.

SENATOR TELLER'S BLUNDER.
Minneapolis Journal.—Senator Teller has surely been misquoted. He could not have meant to say all the great editors are dead. What he intended to say was that he wished they were dead. Senator Teller must know that Murat Halstead and Charles A. Dana are still alive—and kicking.

WHAT MR. NEAL WILL LEARN.
Pittsburgh Dispatch.—The Hon. Lawrence T. Neal is storming around through Ohio declaring that the tariff is unconstitutional. Governor McKinley got after him with a sharp stick on Monday by quoting from Washington, as well as all of the great Democratic leaders down to Samuel J. Tilden, on the subject. Mr. Neal is bound to discover before the campaign is over that reckless assaults upon truth are equally as unpopular in Ohio as attacks upon the vast industries of the country.

A MISTAKE? WELL, RATHER.
New York Recorder.—A majority of the people of this county are means of moderate means. A vast majority of them live in the land of their birth, and know nothing of any other, save by reading or study. On what theory, then, was this man Van Alen selected to represent the United States in the Italian Court? He is not only very rich, but his money is inherited. He not only doesn't live in this country, but he hates it—its customs and its habits—infinity preferring not only the society, but the manners that obtain on the other side of the pond. That is his privilege, but surely it is no sense qualifies him to represent in the United States in a foreign court? Cleveland has evidently made a serious mistake.

A "VERITABLE ASS" FOR ROME.
Philadelphia Inquirer.—The President has been imposed upon. That man Van Alen, just appointed Ambassador to Italy, from all accounts is a veritable ass. It is a hard word to apply to a man, but nothing else will fit the occasion. He built a villa at Newport with a high stone wall around it, for fear the vulgar eye from among the common people might rest upon it. But the main trouble with this egotist is that he detests America and Americans. He married a daughter of old William Astor against the desire of Mr. Astor, and according to the stories told of him the father-in-law despised the son-in-law so heartily that they never spoke. The President would be justified in withdrawing the name of Mr. Van Alen, who holds that the United States is not a fit place for decent people to live in. Instead of sending him to Italy to represent despised America this particular ass ought to be turned out to pasture.

Representatives Chosen.
At the meeting of DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., last night C. W. Wardle, Thomas A. Davis, John W. Thompson, Byron Rudy, Thomas M. Luman and J. M. C. Ballenger were elected Representatives to the Grand Lodge which will meet in Lexington October 10th.

Justly Entitled to It.
Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure is justly entitled to the praise it is receiving. Wherever introduced it has proven itself the most reliable remedy known for the cure of coughs and colds, hoarseness, whooping-cough, bronchitis, soreness of the lungs and every kind of a cough from a simple cold to incipient consumption. Purely vegetable. Always reliable and effective. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle at Power & Reynolds's Drugstore.

A Veritable Treat.
Sharon Record, September 28th, 1893.—Like an ascent from the pavements of Paris to the altitude represented by the highest pinnacle of the Eiffel Tower was the elevation figuratively experienced by those who were fortunate enough to be auditors at the Opera-house last evening, after having self-inflicted the torture of the previous night. On Monday Sharon theater patrons were treated to a conglomeration of theatrical "hogwash" presented under the name of "Atkinson's Bad Boy," but which would have been more fittingly titled "America's Bad Day." Last evening we were entertained by Heywood's Celebrities, without doubt the most refined and talented coterie of artists ever in our city. Nothing could have been more delightfully refreshing than the Heywood entertainment. Washington Opera-house September 30th.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.
From The Troy (Kansas) Chief.—Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten out one in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what a good thing it is to keep handy in the house. For sale by Power & Reynolds.
